

Important Warning – FRAUD

AMT Futures Limited (“AMTF”) has recently become aware that fraudulent websites have been established which have sought to make use of the AMT name. The fraudulent sites are “amtmarkets.co.uk” and “amt-markets.co.uk”. These websites are not related to AMTF, our fellow subsidiary Amalgamated Metal Trading Ltd (“AMT”) or any other Company in the AMC Group.

While it is hoped that these websites will be taken down shortly, members of the public should exercise extreme caution if invited to participate in any investment schemes using the AMTF or AMT names on the websites mentioned above, or on any other sites which may subsequently be established.

Please note that neither AMTF nor AMT offer a MetaTrader 4 dealing system, nor do we sign up customers over the internet.

Please be aware that AMTF only accepts customers who have been subject to a full client ‘know your customer’ procedure.
